Dear Jon and Crew,

Bravo! Bravo! Bravo! My cheeks are still hurting from laughing so much and my colleagues cannot stop talking about how much fun we had during your show.

Kudos to you and your crew for putting on an unforgettable Comedy Murder Mystery for our company Holiday Party. It was clearly evident that you put in significant time making our storyline highly customized and individualized. As someone once said, "the best ingredient for any party is high personalization," and you guys nailed it!!

I also must thank you for making the organization process simple and easy. I look forward to using The Killing Kompany for other of our firm events and will recommend you to others planning special occasions.

Thank you again for a job very well done!

Best regards,

John Trentacoste
